ABOUT CONFERENCE

ABOUT CONFERENCE

Welcome to ISACON Rajasthan 2026

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Where sacred ghats reflect centuries of devotion, where desert winds carry stories of wisdom, and where the serenity of Pushkar meets the warmth of Ajmer... we welcome you with open hearts to the 27th ISACON Rajasthan, to be held on 1st and 2nd August 2026 at Ajmer–Pushkar, Rajasthan.

Amidst this timeless landscape of spirituality, culture, and calm, we gather not merely to update our knowledge, but to reconnect—with science, with purpose, and with one another. ISACON Rajasthan 2026 is envisioned as a confluence of learning and reflection, where academic excellence blends seamlessly with collegial warmth.

Let meaningful discussions spark new ideas, let friendships be renewed, and let the shared pursuit of excellence in Anaesthesiology guide our deliberations. May these days be filled with knowledge exchanged, experiences shared, and memories cherished.

We invite you to be a part of this enriching journey—where tradition embraces progress, and Ajmer–Pushkar welcomes you with grace and goodwill.

With warm regards,

Organising Committee
